

Boise State University

McNair Scholars Research Journal

Volume 13 – Spring 2017

Clarissa Abidog Psychology	Family Matters: The Implications of Family Support on Multiracial Identity	1
Talegria Brown Psychology	Physical Activity and Coping Tactics in Undergraduate Students	8
Nicholas Carlson Biology	A Sting in the Night: Pallid Bat Detection of Dangerous Prey	13
Amy Cutter Geosciences	Developing a Tree-ring Chronology for Reconstructing Past Climate Conditions: Coral Pink Sand Dunes, UT	18
Sean Ippolito Economics, Applied Mathematics	Economic Growth under Weak and Strong Sustainability Scenarios	26
Kimberly Luna Political Science	Policies, Work, and Community: Why Idaho Farmworkers Choose to Stay	39
Chantal Martinez Psychology	Who Uses Social Networking Sites? Exploring Associations among Personality, and the Relationship with Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram	46
Kimberly Neagle Anthropology	How Education Level and Willingness to Learn Affect Older Adults in Their Use of Mobile Technology in Southwest Idaho	54
Eric B. Nelson Materials Science and Engineering, Applied Mathematics	Assessing Time-Dependent Density Functional Theory as a Computational Tool to Model Chromophores Intercalated into DNA Scaffolds	63
Chandra Reyna Sociology, Multi-Ethnic Studies, Psychology	How Far Does Influence Go? Racialized Resistance and University Culture	72
Jesenia F. Robles Criminal Justice	Islam Is the New Black: Muslim Perceptions of Law Enforcement	82
Joel Velasco Biology	It's All about Relationships: AMF-Plant Associations, the Rhizosphere, and Our Changing World	93
